

It's time to stop protecting these local station with legislation, let them compete for the listeners. XM Radio is offering weather and traffic information around the clock.

The local stations that these laws are going to protect only offer weather and traffic info, at most, once per hour.

If they cannot or do not provide this information, then they are not loosing any listeners to begin with.